The "Jays" and "Hayseeds" Have Moved To Cincinnati.

Cincinnati Enquirer.

The other day a curious crowd of people was dispersed by the police near the Grand Central Depot.

Upon investigation it was found that a good natured but rural gentleman from Kentucky had been made the butt of a rather impractical joke. Mr. Jay and a neighbor were about to return home when it occurred to him that he should send word on to his wife that he was coming.

A blackman advised him to write a postal card and drop it into a letter box near by. This the farmer had done and was following out the blackman's instructions.

"How do I get this gosh darn thing into this box?" he asked.

"Take up that lid and as it falls in yell out to Grover Cleveland, where you want it to go to and Grover will hear and send it on."

The old hayseed yelled out lustily: "Grover Cleveland, send this postal to Marinda Jay, Maysville, Ky."

"Oh, that ain't loud enough," interpolated the blackman, and the old fellow bent back like a trolley car conductor and kept screaming out his injunctions to Grover.

The crowd was twenty deep around him before he was advised to stop.

There is more (Cincinnati) in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and so constantly failing to cure with local treatment pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Caecum to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from ten drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., TOLEDO, O. Sold by druggists, 75 cents.

MISERY AND WANT

A Visit to the Stricken Preston and Lacey Families.

THREE DEAD AND THREE SICK

Scenes That Are Enough to Move the Stoniest Heart.

NEED FOR MORE HELP.

The sad cases of death and destitution on Front street and Rosemary alley were published exclusively in Monday's LEADER.

THE LEADER Scribe visited the two families Monday and found that the remains of Mrs. Preston and her grandchild, James Preston, had been taken to Wrightsville, O., for interment.

Mrs. Preston, the mother, and another son were lying in one bed, both dangerously ill with measles, while another son was in a bed in an upstairs room, suffering with the same disease.

The son who occupies the bed with his mother is a twin of the one who died.

There was no sign of carpet on the floors, while the furniture consisted of two beds with scant bedding and three or four rickety chairs.

The wan face of the mother, with traces of evident beauty still lingering there,—whose heart strings had been wrung by the loss of one child and the probable fatal illness of two others,—these sorrows were enough to make her own recovery doubtful and to appeal to the sympathy of the stoniest heart.

The Scribe next visited the home of the Lacey family adjoining.

Here were poorly clad women and children, hovering about a fireside and eating from their laps a scant meal, while in the same room lay the corpse of a little girl who had died the night before.

The mother of this family and the remaining children—some four in number—had just recovered from the disease, and the mother, who was almost too weak to rise, informed the newsmen that she had worked for the children up to the very day she was stricken down.

Here, too, the furniture was simple while there was nothing under foot but the bare boards.

Think of these destitute people, ye who are surrounded by plenty!

All they ask is enough to eat and clothing enough to keep them warm.

Shall they not have that much?

DONATIONS ACKNOWLEDGED.
The sum of $16 in money—including

MISER'S CHIEF TREASURE
A miser lay on his dying bed,
And no voice by him made sound;
No prayer was said and no tears were shed—
He died as he lived—alone!

And his trembling fingers, damp and cold,
Drew the iron hand away
From the guarded coffer, stained and old,
Where his hoarded treasure lay.

But his death-dimmed eyes in the fading light
Looked not on the rubies rare,
Nor the deep sea pearls nor the diamonds bright
That he periled his life to gain.

And that he periled his life to gain,
Was bruited aside with a careless touch
And a glance of cold disdain.

And when strangers looked on the dead in awe,
In his close-clasped icy hands
Not Golconda's flashing gems they saw,
Nor the gold of Africa's sands;

And no jewels fair nor costly
"Tween the fingers still close through,
But a golden tress of a woman's hair
In a ribbon of faded blue.

MAYSVILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect For the Next Twenty-four Hours.

THE LEADER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.
While stronger—fair;
Blue—rain or snow;
With black above—(will) warm;
Snow;
If it's beneath—(will) be cold;
Unless black—(will) no change we'll see.

The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 6 o'clock tomorrow evening.

We respectfully invite the cooperation of THE LEADER with any other daily newspaper in all Northeastern Kentucky if any one can find a daily paper printed in the South-Central District that has Larger Circulation, or More Original Reading Matter, we will take pleasure in presenting him with a year's subscription to THE LEADER.

And this paper is furnished at same price as inferior ones.

Valuable Property For Sale.
Hon. R. B. Lovell, Executor of the late Mrs. E. A. Hill, offers at private sale that valuable property known as the Hill House, corner Front and Sutton streets.

For a hotel, this is one of the finest sites in the city; and who shall say that Maysville doesn't need additional hotel facilities?

The property is in good repair now, and for a moderate sum it can be so modernized as to constitute one of the best Hotel Buildings on the Ohio river.

If not sold privately it will be offered at public auction on Wednesday, April 23d.

Reference is made to the advertisement elsewhere for particulars.

Swiftest CIRCULATION
LARGEST IN THE CITY.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to distribute "free" notices free any more than a merchant can lose his counter for gifts of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its advertisements are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, and no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

The Confused Calls
Upon THE LEADER for free notices have become so burdensome that we are forced to publish the following terms:

For Notices of Suppers.
For marriages, funerals or other public entertainments where a fee is charged, and for obituary notices, readings of respect, etc., THE LEADER will charge FIVE CENTS a line, and hereafter this will be the invariable rate. This, however.

Does Not Include
Notices of Lodge meetings or Church services, which must not exceed ten lines.

Avoidance of Disputes.
Misunderstandings are unpleasant. The rate for Business Notices in THE LEADER is 10 cents a line for the first insertion and 6 cents a line for subsequent insertions. A customer orders a notice to be inserted in the paper. "I'll let you know to take it out," he says to the bookkeeper. But he forgets all about it. The notice runs for two months—42 times—the bill is $12.50. When he finds it out there is a "kink" and a controversy, probably by an icy feeling. Now, to obviate this trouble, we will "kill" notices will be accepted hereafter. Let's have a definite agreement at the outset and the termination will be pleasant all around.

All matter for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock in the morning of each day.

HERE AND THERE
If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note to that effect.

Captain J. H. Myers of Lexington is visiting in this city.

Father A. T. Ennis will return this evening from a visit to Frankfort.

Mrs. J. D. Dye has returned from a visit to her father, Judge Titon, at Carlisle.

Mrs. Ann Lewis of Lexington is with her brother, Mr. H. P. Lewis, who is critically ill.

Mrs. Annie Ingles Scott of Patterson, N. J., is the guest of relatives and friends in this city.

Mrs. Louise Condit leaves today for her home at Ashland, after a pleasant visit to Mrs. Fannie Hanson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Mose arrived home yesterday afternoon from Charleston. The condition of Mr. Mose is greatly improved.

Mrs. Ada Coons of Frankfort is now in our midst visiting old friends. Miss Coons is the oldest daughter of our ex-Maysvillian Judge W. P. Coons, now holding a lucrative and honorable position as an officer of the Supreme Court. Miss Coons is now the guest of Mrs. Anderson Finch of "Maplewood," but will in ten days come to this city to be the guest of Miss Johnson of West Fourth street.

Very Personal.—Postage on drop letters, whether sealed or not, is 2 cents. Many persons send their notices through the Postoffice with only 1 cent stamp. These are "paid for postage." Hereafter they must contain a 2 cent stamp.

There have been about 270 names secured for the all-around Y. M. C. A.

Mr. Al McCormick, well known in this city, is quite ill at his home in Richmond.

A call has been issued for the Kentucky Prohibition Convention, to be held at Covington May 29th.

The LEADER yesterday had a very full and a very graphic report of the exciting events at Frankfort.

The snow came down most too vociferously about noon yesterday. An avalanche slid down from the East roof of the Masonic Temple, crashing through the skylight of The Lenoir Building—doing no damage to the occupants, however.

Mrs. Ed. H. Konner, after a long and painful illness, died at Flemingsburg Monday morning. She was a daughter of Captain W. Joe Ross, and formerly lived here. Mrs. Konner was a most estimable woman, and her death will cause profound sorrow to a wide circle.

The freeing of the Asylum of Maysville Commandery is about finished and the work reflects great credit on our home artist, Mr. John T. Carnahan. The workmen are now engaged on the Blue Lodge room, and when that is done the Masons of Maysville will have the handsome suite of apartments in the site.

RESOLUTIONS

Censuring Ambassador Bayard to Be Taken Up Wednesday.

His Alleged Offense Is Certain Utterances in Addresses Made Recently.

The Arguments on Both Sides in the House Will Follow Political Lines. The Resolutions Will Be Adopted Unanimously, by a Strict Party Vote.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—The dullness of the house sessions this week will be enlivened on Wednesday next by a series of brief speeches on the resolutions censuring Ambassador Bayard for certain utterances contained in his Boston and Edinburgh (Eng.) addresses, delivered some months ago. The resolutions will be called at halfpast one o'clock and they will occupy the attention of the house during the remainder of the day.

They recite the objectionable language and declare that by its use Mr. Bayard has committed an offense against diplomatic courtesy and an abuse of his position. Such utterances, they assert, are inconsistent with that prudent reserve which he himself, while secretary of legation, had shown upon all diplomatic agents of the United States. The resolutions close with the declaration that the foreign affairs committee, the arguments on both sides will follow political lines and the resolutions will be adopted, presumably, by a strict party vote.

GENERAL BANKING BILL.
Arguments heard on the measure by the House Committee on Banking and Currency.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—The house committee on banking and currency heard arguments by Messrs. Cox (Tenn.) and Fowler (N. J.), on the subject of general banking legislation. The bill championed by Mr. Cox, is the measure prepared by Secretary Carlisle last winter, requiring a certain amount of greenbacks to be deposited by national banks as a basis of circulation in lieu of bonds.

The Fowler bill requires the government to fund the national debt into a two per cent bond for bank circulation, and makes the circulation secured by these bonds redeemable at the counter of the bank of issue, the bond being also payable in gold.

FRIGHTFUL DEATH.

An Iowa Man Dragged Half a Mile by His Runaway Team—His Child Reverts to Infancy.

OTTUMWA, Ia., March 17.—Charles Morrison, aged 40, met a frightful death here Monday evening. He was driving a wagon containing his wife and two other ladies and a child in a funeral procession. The horses became frightened and whirled around turning the wagon over and throwing the entire party out. The wagon rights immediately and the team ran. Morrison's foot caught in a spring and he was dragged underneath the wagon fully half a mile. When rescued Morrison was unconscious and died fifteen minutes later. All the women in the party were badly bruised and the child so badly injured that it will probably die.

St. Louis Theater Burned.

St. LOUIS, March 17.—The Winter Garden theater, a vaudeville playhouse at No. 10 North Broadway, was cleaned out by fire at 10 o'clock Monday evening. The place has been closed for repairs for a week, and there was nothing of value burned. The fire was undoubtedly incendiary, as two small brazes were discovered in the place earlier in the evening. Loss $50,000.

All Quiet at Opelousas.

NEW ORLEANS, La., March 17.—The news from Opelousas, La., Monday says all is quiet, but a large number of citizens are under arms, ready to give the rebels a warm reception if they come to town to avenge the shooting of the boys. One of the men shot Sunday is dying. The peace officers who did the shooting have been arrested, but will probably be discharged.

British Vessel in Collision.

LONDON, March 17.—The British steamer Persian Prince, Capt. Hendrickson, at Antwerp from New Orleans, was in collision Monday at the entrance of the docks with the tugboat Mervin. The Persian Prince was so badly damaged that it was necessary to run her on the beach to prevent her from sinking. The Mervin was also seriously damaged.

The Mutiny Explained.

CHICAGO, March 17.—A dispatch received here states that the explosion on the steamer Matia occurred on Monday. Twenty-five Europeans and 16 Negroes were killed. Among the dead are the missionary named Hawk and his wife.

The Capt. Hilly Court Martial.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—The findings in the court martial of Capt. Hilly of the revenue cutter Albatross, held at San Francisco, were received at the treasury. They are very voluminous and may not be promulgated for a month.

The Paris Exposition.

PARIS, March 17.—The chamber of deputies has approved the government's scheme for an international exposition in 1900.

MASS MEETING.

Held in Frankfort to Denounce Gov. Hendrickson for Calling out the Militia.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 17.—There was not standing room in the courthouse when the indignation meeting to protest against the action of Gov. Hendrickson in calling out the troops was called to order by Mayor J. H. Hendrickson. A large number of speakers were present, telling of his conference with Gov. Hendrickson, in which he had assured the executive that he would give the legislature ample protection, and characterized his action in ordering out the troops as highly partisan and unbecoming a governor.

Gen. Hendrickson nominated Judge J. Alexander Hood as chairman of the meeting. As Judge Hood told the chairmen of the meeting that he was not a member of the meeting, he was elected.

Speeches were made by Ed Taylor, O. J. James and others, denouncing the action of Gov. Hendrickson in severe terms. The crowd consisted of about 100 persons, and the meeting was held in the courthouse yard at 12 o'clock.

THE OLYMPIA.

In Rough Weather She Made Twenty Knots an Hour.

According to an Official Report That Has Reached the Navy Department.

The Ran Under Natural Draught—It Is Predicted in Smooth Water She Can Make 32 Knots. These Honorable, the Second and Fastest Cruiser in the World.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—A recent speed run of the cruiser Olympia between two Chinese ports was made the subject of an official report, which has just reached the navy department. Notwithstanding very rough weather, the Olympia averaged 20 knots an hour and would have made 22 knots, according to the report, in smoother water, thus becoming the second fastest cruiser in the world.

The Minneapolis, of our navy, which holds the record, made her remarkable speed of 25 knots and a fraction in her official trial, where every condition was favorable to speed and where forced draught was used.

The Olympia ran under natural draught, and her speed was so great that the decks were swept by the waves and it was necessary to slow down to avoid damage. As it was some damage occurred, the Olympia was built under private contract at the Union Iron works, San Francisco.

VENEZUELA DISPUTE.

A Way Opened for the Settlement of the Question Between Great Britain and the United States.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—While state department officials decline to divulge the nature of Secretary Olney's latest suggestion to Lord Salisbury, in regard to a suggested method of settling the Venezuelan dispute, it is understood that the way has been opened for negotiations which are expected to result in some plan of adjusting the boundary line satisfactory to all concerned.

The reply of Great Britain to Mr. Olney's proposal, has not yet actually reached the state department, but it is on the way and there are good reasons for believing that Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British ambassador, has with him the last 24 hours received full instructions to enter into negotiations here on the subject.

CAPT. BOURKE.

Now in Cuba, Does Not Represent This Government in Any Way.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—The authoritative statement that Capt. John G. Bourke, United States army, who is now in Cuba, does not represent this government in any way. The officer on leave and his visit to Cuba is said to be the result of an error in granting him permission to go beyond the seas.

Whether or not the war department will direct Capt. Bourke to return to the United States has not been determined, but it is probable that he will be allowed to remain in Havana, with the understanding that he will not visit other places in the island.

Two Sisters Die in a Sanatorium.

CHICAGO, March 17.—Two sisters, operated upon for the same illness, died at the Pratt sanatorium in this city from the effects of anaesthetics. They were Mrs. A. W. Dickinson, aged 55 years, and Mrs. Sarah Blush, aged 60 years, both of Seymour, Ind. They were suffering from partial paralysis of the right side, and came here last Thursday for treatment. The operations were successful, but the women did not have the vigor necessary to rally from the effects of the chloroform.

Not Enough Water on the Bar.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—A telegram to the navy department from Boufret, St. Louis, reports that there was not enough water at Port Royal Monday morning to allow the battleship Indiana to pass over the bar. The repeated attempts to get the big vessel into the dry dock are causing uneasiness at the navy department, as high tide level prevailing is not expected to continue for any great length of time.

St. Louis Club Goes South.

St. LOUIS, March 17.—The Brown Stocking base ball players departed yesterday evening for Dallas, Tex., where they will have four weeks' practice. The club is complete with the exception of Cooley, who is holding out for $2,000 and is offered $1,800. Latham has been made captain and predicts a good showing for St. Louis in the race.

In the Hands of a Receiver.

CHICAGO, March 17.—The local branch of the plumbing gas and steam fitting house of Peck Bros. & Co. of New Haven, Ct., which went into the hands of receivers Saturday night, was placed in charge of a receiver Monday morning. The Chicago branch is said to carry a $60,000 claim, with debts of $50,000 and accounts valued at $75,000.

Murdered and the Body Placed on the Track.

PITTSBURGH, March 17.—Wm. Neff, aged 35 years, an ex-convict, was shot and killed by a man named Albert Newton on Monday morning. His body was then placed on the tracks of the Pittsburgh, McKeesport and Youngstown railroad, and was run over by a freight train. There is no clue to the perpetrators.

Wages Reduced Ten Per Cent.

PITTSBURGH, March 17.—All of the tonnage men (about five hundred) at the Oliver Iron and Steel Co.'s Lake side mills had their wages reduced ten per cent. Monday on account of the depression in the iron and steel business. Mr. Oliver says wages will be restored as soon as possible.
